Sec. 20-144.1. - Parking of certain vehicles in residential areas.

- (a) It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to park or store an airplane, mobile- home, trailer, tractor-trailer, or part of such vehicle in any area of a residential zone.
- (b) It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to park or store any recreational vehicle, camper, boat, trailer, utility trailer or parts thereof within the boundaries of the front yard of any R-1, R-2, R-3 zoned properties, excluding a driveway that is positioned perpendicular to the residential structure. Said driveway shall not comprise more than twenty (20) feet in width.
- (c) In residential zones, the following vehicles will be allowed to be parked:
 - (1) Passenger vehicles.
 - (2) Vehicles used for vanpooling of not more than fifteen-passenger capacity.
 - (3) Station wagons.
 - (4) Pickup trucks up to one-ton capacity.
- (d) Any person, firm or corporation violating the provisions of this section shall be assessed a civil penalty of not less than twenty dollars ($20.00) and not more than one hundred dollars ($100.00). Said penalty shall be for each and every day that such violation exists.
- (e) This section shall authorize parish government through its agents and divisions of the compliance office, the office of community development, constables in their respective wards to bring action against violators of this section.
- (f) It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation to park or store any passenger vehicle within the boundaries of the front yard of any R-1, R-2, R-3 zoned properties, excluding a driveway that is positioned perpendicular to the residential structure or a circular driveway that meets current zoning standards. Said perpendicular driveway shall not comprise more than twenty (20) feet in width.

Sec. 11-27. - Storage, etc., of junk—On public property.

Exceptions: The provisions of this definition of junked motor vehicle shall not apply to any motor vehicle in operable condition specifically adopted or constructed for racing or operation on privately owned drag strips or raceways; nor shall they apply to any operable motor vehicle retained by the owner for antique collection purposes rather than for salvage or transportation.

"Abandoned vehicle" shall mean any vehicle which lacks a current, valid license plate and safety inspection certificate and is left unattended or unclaimed on any parish street or on any parish property in the same location or place for more than ten (10) calendar days shall be considered an abandoned vehicle. Under the provisions of this section, a vehicle shall be deemed to be abandoned whenever the vehicle is parked, placed or left in a location and remains within an area of one hundred (100) yards of such location for more than ten (10) calendar days.

"Vehicle" shall mean every device in, upon, or by which, any person or property is or may be transported or drawn upon a highway, street or alley; except devices moved by human power or used exclusively upon stationary rails or tracks. A bicycle or a ridden animal shall be a vehicle, and a trailer or semi-trailer shall be a separate vehicle.

"Wrecked vehicle" as used herein shall mean a vehicle which has been partially dismantle, is elevated on blocks, jacks or by any other means, or is damaged (including, flat tires, missing tires, missing body parts, etc.) in such a way that it appears it cannot be driven or operated.

- (a) It shall be unlawful for any person to park or store any machinery, house trailer, boat, abandoned vehicle, wrecked vehicle or junked vehicle on any public street or right-of-way.
- (b) The storage of abandoned, wrecked or used automobiles or other motor vehicles, or any part thereof, or any other junked, discarded or abandoned machinery or other metal, tin or other discarded items on public property, including, but not limited to, public streets, street right-of-way, sidewalk, neutral ground, vacant or occupied lot, or other public places of the parish shall constitute a violation.
- (c) Notice of a violation shall be posted on the vehicle, machinery, junk, house trailer or other discarded item(s). Any vehicle, machinery, junk, or other discarded item which remains in violation thirty-six (36) hours after notice shall be considered public property and will be towed or hauled off at the property owner's expense or the party responsible for placing material at this location. Any person in violation of the above shall be fined two hundred dollars ($200.00) plus the actual expense or cost to the government for removal.

Sec. 11-28. - Storage of junk on private property.

- (a) No person shall store or offer for sale junked, wrecked or used automobiles or other motor vehicles, or any part thereof, or any junked, discarded or abandoned machinery or other metal, tin, or other discarded items on any vacant lot or any unused portion of any occupied lot that is not properly enclosed on all boundary lines with a proper, suitable and substantial fence not less than seven (7) feet nor more than ten (10) feet high which properly screens such enclosed area from public view, provided that the fence be kept in a constant state of good repair and no sign or other advertising matter shall be placed upon such fence.
- (b) The storage of any junked, wrecked, or used automobile or other motor vehicle, or any part thereof, or any junked, discarded or abandoned machinery or other metal, tin, or other discarded items, on private property, in view of the general public, shall constitute a violation.
- (c) Notice of a violation shall be posted on the vehicle, junk, or other discarded items. Any vehicle, junk or other discarded items which remains in violation ten (10) days after notice shall be considered public property and will be towed at the property owner's expense.
- (d) Any person in violation of the above may be fined a minimum of one hundred ($100.00) and up to three hundred dollars ($300.00) per such vehicle in addition to any towing or impound fees as set forth by the Louisiana Towing and Recovery Act, or any other costs to parish government attributable to impoundment of any such vehicles.
