President's Report

October 6, 2025

St. Bernard Parish Councilmembers and Residents,

Over the past two weeks, several projects and initiatives have continued to move St. Bernard Parish forward in a positive direction. Our crews and partners have been hard at work across multiple areas — from environmental cleanup and animal welfare to economic development and cultural preservation.

Environmental cleanup efforts remain ongoing, with approximately 9,500 feet of the 40 Arpent Canal cleared of invasive water hyacinth. Crews are continuing their work downstream to improve water flow and drainage efficiency throughout the parish.

At the St. Bernard Animal Shelter, a recent adoption event brought great results — five dogs and six cats found new homes thanks to the dedication of our Animal Services staff and volunteers. We extend our thanks to the community for supporting this effort and helping provide second chances to our parish's animals in need.

In the area of economic development, the St. Bernard Economic Development Foundation (SBEDF) celebrated two major milestones. The organization officially opened the St. Claude Collective, a shared workspace designed to foster collaboration among local entrepreneurs and small businesses. SBEDF also hosted its annual Startup St. Bernard Pitch Competition, where Limpiar, a digital platform for cleaning services, took home the grand prize and announced plans to establish its headquarters right here in St. Bernard Parish.

On the cultural and educational front, Nunez Community College, through a grant from the parish's Coastal Department, unveiled the Los Isleños Historical Archive. This new resource preserves and showcases our community's rich heritage through artifacts, photographs, video recordings, and oral histories, ensuring that the story of our Isleños families will be shared with future generations.

Public Works and Infrastructure Updates

Public Works crews continue to make steady progress across multiple job sites. At the Sheriff's Office annex building, crews are working underneath the building to fully seal the structure, including windows and foundation areas. Work at the Farmsite/Torres Lift Station is advancing with slabs completed, precast sections for the vault and wet well installed and grouted, and backfill approximately 80% complete. Contractors are now pulling sheeting around the well. The Riverbend Force Main team has finished boring under the canal and will begin pulling pipe this week. The Violet Canal Fence Project is scheduled to begin October 13, and crews are also wrapping up final punch list items on miscellaneous drainage projects parish wide.
