SUMMARY NO. 3297
ORDINANCE SBPC #1700-10-15

Chapter 22 – Zoning
Section 2 – Interpretation
Subsection 4 – Definitions

22-2-4. Definitions.

Accessory building and accessory uses:

(a) Accessory building. A structurally detached building, except by roof, subordinate to the principal building on a lot, the use of which is customary incidental to that of the principal building and not used as a place of habitation.

(b) Accessory use. A subordinate use which is incidental to and customary or necessary in connection with the principally permitted use of a building or a principally permitted use, and which is located on the same lot with such principal building or use.

Adult Oriented Businesses: An adult bookstore, adult motion picture theater, adult mini-motion picture theater, adult cabaret, or a massage business. Adult establishment also means any premises which sells or disseminates "explicit sexual material".

Alley: A way affording a secondary means of access to property abutting thereon.

Amusement places: Establishments used solely by the public for recreational purposes that offer the use of electronic and video games, pool tables or any other mechanical devices for entertainment. Amusement places can only operate between the hours of 3:30 p.m. to 12:01 a.m. during the school year. Hours are not restricted on Saturday, Sunday, or summer vacation (when the St. Bernard Parish School System is not in operation).

Animal Boarding Facility: An establishment for the boarding on a temporary or overnight basis of animals (pets) as a commercial use.

Animal Hospital/Clinic: An establishment for the care and treatment of animals, and where animals may be boarded during their convalescence. The primary operation of the use is the care and treatment of the diseases and injuries of animals.

Apartment: A room or suite of rooms with culinary facilities, designed for or used as living quarters for a single family. For the purposes of this chapter, an apartment shall have a minimum living area of four hundred (400) square feet.

Apartment hotel: A building designed for or containing both apartments and individual guest rooms or suites of rooms and apartments wherein is maintained an inner lobby through which all tenants must pass to gain access to the apartments, and catering to permanent and not transient tenants, and which may furnish services ordinarily furnished by hotels, such as drugstores, barbershops, cigar and newsstands and dining rooms, when such uses are located entirely within the building with no entrance from the street nor visible from any sidewalk, and having no sign display visible from the outside of the building indicating the existence of such use.

Apartment houses: See "dwelling, multiple-family."

Art Gallery: A commercial establishment engaged in the sale, loan and exhibition of paintings, sculpture, photography, video art, or other works of art. An art gallery does not include a cultural facility, such as a library, museum, or non-commercial gallery that may also display paintings, sculpture, photography, video art, or other works of art. This includes a permanent outdoor art market on private property.

Art Studio: An establishment for the instruction or study of an art or type of exercise or activity such as dance, martial arts, photography, music, painting, gymnastics, sculpture, ceramics, hot work (i.e. glass, iron), yoga or other like mediums. This use may also include residential space for artists.

Artist Community: Land and structures used as a meeting place, retreat, and exhibition center for the exchange of ideas between artists, members of the professional art community, and the general public, which may provide exhibition space, work space, meeting space, lecture halls, performance space, and sculpture parks, as well as living and dining facilities for the staff, artists, and participants in the center's retreat programs.

Bakery: Establishment primarily engaged in the retail sale of bakery products such as bread, cakes and pies and which can produce some or all products sold on the premises; ancillary seating may be permitted

Bar: An establishment serving alcoholic beverages in which the principal business is the sale of such beverages for consumption on the premises. A bar may include a micro-brewery or micro-distillery on site as an ancillary use and retail sales of those beverages produced in the on-site micro-brewery or micro-distillery. A bar may also include Live Entertainment as a secondary use.

Basement: See "cellar."

Bed and breakfast: An owner occupied residential dwelling that is designed for and used to accommodate a transient tourist population. Said accommodations shall include the renting of no more than five (5) rooms, without separate kitchen facilities, but may provide meals in a common dining area. The accommodation of transients shall not exceed a period of fourteen (14) days.

Blockface: That portion of a block or tract of land facing the same side of a single street and lying between the closest intersecting streets.

Boardinghouse: A building, other than a hotel, where, for compensation and by prearrangement for a definite period, meals or lodging and meals are provided for three (3) or more persons, but not exceeding twenty (20) persons.

Bookstore: A retail establishment where books are primarily sold.

Brewery: A facility licensed as a "Manufacturer or brewer" as defined in Title 26, Section 241, of the Louisiana Revised Statutes. The facilities may include an on-site tasting room as an accessory use with retail sales of only those alcoholic beverages produced at the facility for consumption on or off the premises. An on-site tasting room shall be subject to the use and parking standards of a bar and any limitations provided for in state law. The facilities may also include other uses such as standard restaurant, bar, or live entertainment as permitted in the zoning district, with retail sales of only those alcoholic beverages produced at that facility for consumption on or off the premises with a capacity of more than 12,500 barrels per year.

Building, height of: The vertical distance measured from the average elevation of the grade at the front of the building to the highest point of the coping of a flat roof; to the mean height level between eaves and ridge for gable, hip and gambrel roofs; and to the deck line of a mansard roof.

Buildings: Any structure designed or built for the support, enclosure, shelter or protection of persons, animals, chattels or property of any kind.

Building area: The area of that part of the lot not included in the yards or open spaces herein required.

Bulletin board: See "signs, advertising."
